CALL FOR SPECIAL ADMISSIONS PRELIMINARY PREPARATORY CLASSES

The Vice Chancellor of the Cameroon Christian University Institute in response to the plea from parents who intended to enroll their children into the CCU for 2017/2018 academic year, and in recognition of the many prospective undergraduate students who are still at home,

- Hereby advertises places in preliminary preparatory classes into the first year of the various programmes of the CCU.
- The students admitted into these classes shall pay the university tuition fee for the programme of their choice and the university shall pay the cost of their A/L GCE training with the exception of the registration fee for the examination.

ELEGIBILITY FOR ADMISSION

Candidates for this programme shall be requested to fulfill the following conditions:

- A) They must have obtained at least four subjects at the Ordinary Level GCE Examination or its equivalent certificate.
- B) They must have attended the Lower Sixth form and duly promoted to the Upper Sixth form.
- C) They are required to sign an undertaking with the CCU to fulfill all admissions requirements of their chosen programmes before graduation.
- D) They shall attend the preliminary preparatory classes sponsored fully by the CCU at the Bali and Kumba Campuses.
- E) They shall submit Lower Sixth transcripts and photocopies of their GCE O/L Certificates to the university.
- F) Candidates who have earned at least four GCE 'O' level subjects and at least 2 GCE 'A' level subjects, but do not have a pass in English Language or Mathematics are also eligible.
